Linda and I both grew up on King Road in Spring Creek Woods. We both loved horses and spent many grade school years together either playing horses or reading horse magazines. Looking forward to seeing Linda someday in heaven by grace through faith in Jesus! Christine Legros Friesz, Montana.

On behalf of Linda's, Lockport High School, classmates, I send our love and prayers, on the passing of one so dear! Linda was a friend to so many. She could always be counted on for her kind words and beautiful smile. We all will miss her dearly! I'm sending Linda's high school senior picture. May her soul, and all the souls of the faithful, departed thro ugh the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen. xoxoxo Her classmates from Lockport H.S., John Dzak.
