“ I will always remember Jim as a man with character, intelligence and truly a great professional. More importantly, he was kind, caring and never spoke a bad word of anyone.

The presence of a husband, father and friend can never be replaced and I pray that the hole left behind will be filled with good memories and the loving support of friends and family.

I will miss him,

“ My favorite memory was the day Jim sent Tammy on an all day scavenger hunt on Valentines Day. I can't remember the exact details but he had a poem for her to start out and sent her off to eat breakfast, a store for a gift, DeBrands, florist, and the final destination was dinner. Each place had a special little poem that told her the next special stop. Jim called out to all of us in surrounding offices each time Tammy reached her next location. Just like in everything he did it was well thought out and from his heart.

Tammy, Jim loved you so much. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart.

“ I have known Jim for about 18 years, first in aftermarket, and have worked closely with Jim in Development on the REU 777X project for the last few years. All I know is, Jim treated each and every one of us with the utmost respect, no matter our title. I always knew I could count on Jim to ease my frustrations at the daily demands to meet deadlines. He always had a positive attitude, and could turn a hectic day into a great accomplishment. And even though it was against the "covid" rules to not bring in treats, he always seemed to sneak them in! With rules of course! I will miss you terribly! I will always think of you as not only a great coworker, but as a VERY good friend. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Having worked with Jim over the last several years I can attest to his very positive personality and endless commitment to our customers. His work ethic amazed me as there was never a task too tall for Jim. Whenever I brought an issue to Jim, he would do whatever necessary to get to resolution in short order. I greatly appreciated his drive and know the business environment was a better place because of it. Thank-you for the countless hours of helping the Quality guy, never pushing off the needs as unwarranted however asking what can I do to help. You will be greatly missed by all. My deepest condolences to your wife and family at this time.

“ Jim "Big Papa" Reid was a world-class human being. He was a dear friend, colleague and selfless mentor who left an indelible mark on me and the arc of my life. I share in the incredible grief now felt by his family and the countless he touched, those of whom hold the utmost gratitude for just having known Jim.

For Jim, "help" was the "default" setting. He was the consummate giver, a gentle giant that one could always count on and believe in. Despite his deep reservoir of knowledge and his outsized contributions, Jim was forever humble, so often opting to deflect much-deserved praise and recognition with his trademark humor and playful self-deprecation.

Although part of Jim's heart always resided in Texas, he was quite at home in the Midwest where no one is too good and everyone is good enough. Apropos, Jim spared the judgement and met you "where you were at". He believed that the path to love and acceptance was simple: be the first to give it. May this spirit of his live on in all of us.

God has called home one of his best. Big Papa, I hope the fish are biting up there and that there are sausages sizzling on the grill. As the Lord celebrates your triumphant return, we will celebrate your life and be missing you. Until we meet again...rest in peace, my friend.

“ 5 years ago Jim and Tammy welcomed us to the neighborhood with homemade fresh cookies big smiles and warm loving hearts. We hit it off and have been close family since. You are a beautiful couple and Jim will be deeply missed. May he rest in peace and take comfort knowing his loving soul will continue to serve God and love others from afar. Jim's funny personality and glowing smile were just many great qualities about him but boy could he cook! We had some great homemade dinners, lake and boating fun to name few!

Thank you for all the love, laughs and wonderful memories we have gotten to share we will cherish them forever in our hearts. Prayers for strength and comfort to Tammy and the entire family.
