

John F. "Jack" Cross

November 17, 1933 - April 12, 2015

John F. "Jack" Cross, 81, a renowned Bluffton teacher, coach and school administrator, passed away unexpectedly Sunday, April 12, 2015 at his residence in Bluffton.

Born on November 17, 1933 in Rushville, Indiana to Tracy G. and Lena (Beley) Cross. Jack graduated from Rushville High School in 1951 and earned B.S. and Masters degrees in education from Ball State University.

Jack served in the U.S. Army from 1955 to 1957 and then began a career in education which spanned 40 years, including 34 years in the Bluffton-Harrison school district.

On August 4, 1956 in Delphi, Indiana, Jack married Judith Hamling, who preceded him in death on February 3, 2015.

After initial teaching and coaching stints at Pendleton High School and Dunkirk High School, Jack came to Bluffton in 1962 as a teacher and head basketball coach.

He was the head Tiger basketball coach for 10 years, becoming the winningest coach in school history and posting an overall record of 143 victories and 88 losses for a winning average of .618. His Tiger basketball teams won five sectional championships, five holiday tournament titles and a conference championship in 1969. Two of his sectional champion teams advanced to the regional finals. He also coached cross country and baseball.

Jack served as an assistant principal and guidance counselor in the B-H school system before assuming the role of athletic director in 1980, a position which he held until his retirement in 1996.

In addition to his exemplary capabilities as a teacher, coach and administrator, Jack was an outstanding all-around athlete in his younger days at Rushville and Ball State, participating in basketball, football and track and field.

In March of 2014 he was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame for his coaching and playing achievements. In February of 2011, Jack was inducted into the Bluffton Tiger Athletic Hall of Fame and in 1980, he was inducted into the Ball State Athletic Hall of Fame. He was a four-year member of the Ball State varsity basketball team and also played football for the Cardinals. Jack also was previously inducted into the Rushville High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jack was an avid golfer and had the rare distinction of scoring a hole-in-one on all of the par-three holes at Timber Ridge Golf Club.

He was a member of the Timber Ridge Golf Club and Bluffton Elks Lodge.

Surviving are a daughter, Terri Ann (Kevin) Bollman of Fort Wayne and a son, Tracy Cross of Fort Wayne, along with two grandchildren, Emily and Jacob Bollman. Also surviving is a sister Jeanne Greer of Grand Rapids, Michigan and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Chester and Carrie Cross.

A service to celebrate Jack's life will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, April 17 at the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton with Life Celebrant Jeff Lemler and Tony Garton officiating. Calling hours will be held from 12 noon to 8 p.m. on Thursday, April 16 and for one hour prior to the service on Friday.

“ Jack came to Bluffton my senior year and it didn't take long to realize this was a totally different deal playing basketball at BHS. We knew nothing of his star status at Ball State. The fact that he was at that time the 3rd all time leading scorer at Ball State was never mentioned. I still remember scrimmaging against Jack. We were used to playing against Hullinger.....We knew about him. He played at Tulane, he could drive and dunk. He was good, really good. But then their was this new coach. I still have a picture of my teammates; Brad Bounds, Dan Taylor and Jerry Murray, all beat red, sweat dripping to the floor, hunched over shaking their head and cussing and asking who the hell is this guy?

I didn't know until years later of his legendary career at Ball State when I went to a Ball State basketball and noticed a plaque with his name on it and his picture on the wall. In fact, I think Ball State only gave one scholarship a year and guess who had it? Jack Cross. He never mentioned any of it....

Everyone meets someone in their life who stands out above the crowd. For me, it was Jack Cross and I would bet my former teammates would say the same thing. He was the real deal.

“ Jack was my driver education teacher in Dunkirk. We were all sorry for him to leave. Then I knew him from here when I came to Bluffton in 1964. Every time I ran into him which was often, he always asked about his Dunkirk players and kept in touch with some of them all these years. He never forgot to ask about Dunkirk and shared great memories from there. I will miss chatting with him.

“ Coach Cross was one of the finest gentlemen I've ever known. While I was never an athlete of any repute he always treated me as if I were. Oh my goodness, when he had has play "bomb Berlin" in PE you always wanted to be on his side because if you weren't you would not want to be hit by one of the balls he threw. I think I still have bruises from when I was the recipient of one of his "smokers"!

“ Jack and I shared our lives for more than 75 years. Beginning at Graham Annex Elementary school in Rushville until his passing. We played many basketball games in the alley behind Grandpa Cross's house across the street from Rushville High School where Jack excelled in sports. He carried on his love of competition at Ball State University and is in the BSU Athletic Hall of Fame. He loved his family, his career in education and coaching. We have shared many phone calls over the past several years and recently planned to get together this summer to share more good times. I know that there are many, many people whose lives were touched by Jack. We have all lost a great friend, coach and teacher. Keep Jack and his family in your prayers. “ Jack Cross was one of the most talented student-athletes to ever graduate from Rushville High School. He led the South Central Conference in scoring in both football and basketball his senior year. As a student-athlete at Ball State University he led the Indiana Collegiate Conference in scoring, again, in both football and basketball. But, the greatest quality of Jack Cross, was the person he was. A gentlemen, polite, and considerate. He is highly respected in Indiana high school communities. Growing up in Rushville, several years behind Jack, he was the idol of many aspiring student-athletes.
He remains a role model to us all.

“ Hall of Fame Coach Cross was a classy gentleman. I'm proud to have participated in honoring him last year at Sassafrass Restaurant in Bluffton. He shared many thoughts and memories with me, in the past years, of our days at BHS and after.

He invited me (at Judy's service) 2 months ago - to join him in his "first (golf) Round of Spring 2015" (Front tees)...proud to have known and admired him - we'll postpone that round of golf until I get to that Great Course in the Heavens... Coach you've earned "Honors"! Phil Gagle “ Jack was an incredible man, always with a kind or encouraging word. And what a memory. After having been gone from Bluffton for over 35 years, I ran in to Jack and he remembered me instantly. We had a long conversation about golf and basketball. He told me he was still disappointed I didn't go out for the Basketball team in my sophomore year. I told him he had enough bench warmers. My condolences to the family. What a great man.

“ From BB during summer rec, playing BB with him at Washington Park, to playing for him in high school, Jack was a man I loved. My first 3 years of Teaching was at Central Jr Hi where he was AD. He became one of my mentors at school. He became my friend; I scouted with him and we had many discussions. He was a great competitor when he coached. He paid the best compliment ever when he stated I was like him; a competitor who never quit, even in practice. We have all lost a friend, mentor, and a winner in all he ever did. God Bless his family; you are in my prayers.

“ Coach Cross was one of the most influential people in my coaching, teaching, and administrative life - which, translated into my personal life when interacting with my family and friends. Mr. Cross was organized, intense, self controlled, and expecting of a full effort and always conducting yourself as a gentlemen and as a sportsman. The motto in the Bluffton Gym, "When a great scorer comes to write against your name, he will not write if you won or lost but how you played the game." Mr. Cross was a model for this creed. However, let this not fool you in not believing that Coach Cross was a keen, keen competitor who loved winning. He may have been the best competitor and this showed not only in basketball, also on the golf course. And, Coach Cross was always a gentleman.

-Mr. Cross was one of my best advisors when I assumed the role as superintendent at Adams Central. Coach was one of my most valued people who encouraged me. I am fortunate that Coach Cross was part of my life.
