“ Kent Pulley... I had the greatest brother in Leonard. We spent a lot of time fishing which was his favorite thing to do. I remember once we went to the local root beer stand and when we had finished he dumped a bunch of quarters in the root beer mug for a tip. He then got ornery any put shaving cream on top of the change. It reacted with the root beer and started expanding he tried stuffing napkins in the mug but it was pushing them our when the cargo came to get the tray. His face was beer red when she got the tray. Always a joker. I Love him deeply.

“ To my brother who was full of mischief and verve, you will be missed. I remember when you handed my son a jalapeno and told him to taste it. The look on your face was priceless as he ate it and then picked you one from our garden to eat. I fed him spicy things as soon as he was of baby food! Surprise Leonard, you took the news gracefully, I hope you enjoyed the hot peppers we need and sent home with you!
