“ 29 years, just shy of 30, we've been friends, with never a cross word that I can remember. We rode thousands of miles on the Harleys across country and down South, cleaned up many derailments together and ate many lunches and dinners, all with hours of conversation. You were ALWAYS there when I needed help and I tried to do the same. You loved your kids and grandkids, your old blue truck and old western movies. You are and will always be missed by many, especially me. Love you! Your friend forever, Gary Royalty

“ We are so very sorry to hear about Lonnie's passing. I got the chance to hang out with him quite a few times, including when he hired me to take senior pics for his son. Amazing person, fun to talk to and be around. I wish I got to know him better before this. Condolences to the kids and other family. From Crystal and Chris Newman

“ My sincere condolences to Lonnie’s family. Lonnie was a great person that is embedded in the fondest memories I have from railroading. Even after I retired Lonnie and I spoke occasionally. It didn’t matter how time passed us by we still had laughs of time gone by and discussed issues we shared interest in. Railroading, wrecking, cars and motorcycles.

One of my memories that I cherish was when someone said they ran into a guy in Canada that said I punched him at a derailment site! It was Lonnie sharing one of the good times we had years before. No matter where I went on the railroad we managed to cross paths.

Everywhere I went, people knew Lonnie and spoke highly of him. I will always remember him as a good friend.

“ I first met Lonnie when I was a young trainwrecker up here in Ontario Canada.
He used to come up here and stand in as our division manager, he taught me so much.
Was an absolute wealth of knowledge and a pleasure and honour to have shared a train wreck with. An absolute legend of a human being. Genuine one of a kind trainwrecking cowboy. I will remember you brother to the end of my days. I used to joke with him that he was a terminator built by Hulcher to be the ultimate, unstoppable train wrecker .
Rest in peace brother your legacy will live forever.
