“ I am sorry to just now hearing of Amie's passing. When I was a little girl attending Liberty Center Baptist Church, I remember them sitting behind us and, on more than one occasion, I would scribble all over the bulletin while the sermon "droned on" in my little girl's opinion. And then while we were standing and singing the closing song, Jim would reach over and mark a grade on my paper! Once he even gave me an A ! :) Their love for one another was very evident to me, as I often saw them holding hands while standing and singing in church, or walking in the parking lot. They even influenced me to the point that, when I reach for my husband's hand during church to this day, I always think of them. I had not had contact with them for many many years, but any and all thoughts of them make me smile. (And I thought you should know.) Blessings upon your family. Rest in peace, Jim & Amie.

“ Dear Craig and Gary Alan, Please be comforted in knowing I am praying for you boys as you bury your mother tomorrow. Time has passed and I haven't been a part of your family, but I want you to know your mother took me in as a little girl, taught me how to cook, and many, many homemaking skills. She was a hard worker, loved your dad, and I am indebted to her for giving me a home after your grandmother Fern died.

I am praying for you today and tomorrow; may the God of Peace and Comfort guard, guide and protect you through these coming days.

*With love,
Aunt Lorraine*
