“ Just wanted you to know how much I enjoyed talking to Barbara when I had to take her blood for tests so many times. She was also so gracious and kind. I enjoyed visiting her on her birthday as it was the same as my daughters. Enjoyed seeing the crafts she created and I have some as gifts. She is free of her confinement of being in bed or in a wheel chair. She is FREE AND HAPPY. My sympathy to all of you but she is rejoicing in Heaven.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Rosemary, Kenny and their families today. We have many wonderful memories of Barb through the years. Barb loved her family and was so proud of her nephews. A few years ago, she showed me a family scrapbook she was working on. What a treasure you have there! The time and patience she had when working with children was a gift that she cherished. May God comfort each of you today and in the days ahead. Love, Elmer & Marcia Pate
