“ Jerry & Sandy ,Soo sorry to read of your loss . My sympathy goes out to all of you & your families .Both of your parents were well respected in Bluffton & will be missed. I came to know your Mom more after the passing of your Dad . She was a good friend & customer who always was ready to talk IU basketball. I was out of town on Wed. & missed the services.My condolences .##imported-begin##Jerry Garrett##imported-end##

The Mallers/Fritz family friendship blossomed on the corner of Morgan and Central. I think that Barb and Bob attended every movie at the "Grand". When I returned to Bluffton for visits, I would always see Barbara eating at Richards. She will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Jane Mallers Pautsch##imported-end##

“ Our sincere sympathy goes out to your family. Barbara had become a good friend the last few years as I worked with her at Wells Fargo Bank. I learned to know her as a neighbor to my Mother on Elm Drive. I would catch her many mornings getting the news paper in her robe, we would laugh about it. Barbara will be sadly missed.
