“ Dear Jake and family. We were saddened to read of Eileen's passing away. We relive the days when the school class had their reunions and find that our memories of the times we all spent together are more precious than gold.

We have a book of most of the pictures and treasure it so much.

We will be praying for you as you gather to bid your goodbyes, but know that you will be reunited someday.

God bless you all.##imported-begin##Tom and Nancy

“ Dear Fluke family,

I am sorry about the loss of your loved one.

While death may seem natural, when it happens in our family it doesn't feel natural.

We may ask, 'Why do we die?', 'What happens when we die?', and 'Is there any hope of seeing our loved one again?'

I hope you will find it comforting to read the answers to these questions in your Bible. They can be found at:

Romans 5:12, 'That is why, just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned.'

Ecclesiastes 9:5, 'For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead they are conscious of nothing at all...'

John 5:28,29, 'Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...'

Sincerely,##imported-begin##Lynne Eckert##imported-end##
