“ Sitting at my kitchen table, I look outside and see the beautiful white clouds against the blue day and think - how heaven must be rejoicing to have Betty home. She will be missed but the love memories she left behind will fill the empty spot in our hearts.

“ The Gregg family were wonderful neighbors on Williams St. In Bluffton. Both Betty and Lynn were always pleasant, said hi and asked how you were. The 2 oldest boys, Bobbie and Bruce were my friends. We played yard games, I played cowboys and Indians and they played house, leaf house that is. Great memories of the Gregg family. Prayers for the boys and family. Becky Musser Johnson address was 727 Williams.
