“ Thoughts and prayers to Betty's entire family as you go forth in the difficult days ahead. I enjoyed working with her at Old-First National Bank and knowing her for many years through her kids. I always thought she was a classy lady.
RIP Betty.

“ Rhonda Mike and families, please know you are in our thoughts through this time of sadness. Aunt Betty was the most elegant and stylish of all the aunts. As a kid, I always thought she could be a movie star. Coming to her house was always fun as she was such a great hostess. I never really got much one ob one time with her until she snd Dad were getting older and required help from us to arrange sibling visits. It was then I learned what a wicked wit she possessed and wished I would have had the chance to get to know her better. Be at peace Aunt Betty. You are well remembered. Kim and Becky Hartman
