“ I met Bren at EastSide Elementary. Not quite sure how it happened, (i'm pretty sure I was busy talking) although I got on the wrong bus, and she had me get off at her bus stop. Down by Washington Park, She took me to her Grandparents who lived right beside them, and then we got me home. She has been One Amazing Friend ever since, even when we lost touch with each other over the years. Reiminiscing was Wonderful. You will NEVER be forgotten Sweetheart. Love you , Betty (Ball) Bisel

“ Hard to believe your really gone. Not very often do you get to have a friend for 43 years,and I was truly blessed to call you that for most of my life. Still remember walking into kindergarten and being scared to death,when I finally looked up I seen you and you smiled and that was how it all began,thru moves.kids.husbands,you were there.So thankful you moved home 2 yrs ago, It gave my daughters a chance to know you and of course you had a HUGE impact on them,your memory will live on in my heart and of course in the bat tattoo and all the monsters hanging in our house!!! Love you boris,save me a spot cause I will have lots to tell you!!!!

“ *Brenda always made me laugh. Even on a bad day she could get me to smile. We use to sit and have coffee every morning before I would leave for work. She was the first one to know when I found out I was pregnant with my first son. He has always known her as his Aunt Brenda. We will miss her greatly and she will never be far from our hearts. We love you Brenda. xxxooo “ *Brenda, a bubble has burst, a light has gone out, a smile is missing...

BUT the world is a better place because of you!
You touched so many hearts and the lives you touched will never be the same.
Could it be a time for us to "Pay it forward" in your memory so you can keep smiling!?*

“ I wasn't sure what to expect when I first met Brenda. I'll never forget it tho' - it was the day Chris moved out of his parents' house and Brenda was movin' in for a couple weeks. We went down to get a few more things of his. She came walking out of the front door with this huge smile on her face. I remember thinkin' wow, she's friendly.. I wasn't sure about it.. lol.. :) I was six months pregnant. After that, every time she'd see me, she'd hug me and ask me how I was doin' - that's when I would realize that was her main concern - everyone else but herself. <3 She was such a beautiful person - inside and out and I came to love her very dearly. After Tommy was born, she grew close to him and loved him so much. He loved her also. <3

I'll never let him forget you, Brenda. <3 I promise. None of us will ever let you go. We love you. Rest In Peace, Beautiful lady. <3

“ *She is now a angel in heaven.
I love and miss my sister Brenda
Born June 29, 1966
Became an Angel September 27, 2013
I love you with all my heart and not having you here
has been the hardest thing for me.
I miss and love you so so much...
There isn't a day that doesn't go by...
that I don't think of you.
Love your little sister*

“ I love you and miss you, what can I say. Bren, it was an honor to care for you, to be able to help you when you needed the help. Always, always you were thankful and no matter what it was you would say thank you. Such a thoughtful person you were. Now you can rest with all the people you have missed. I remember reading this to you every day and if I would forget you would ask me to read it to you, so here it is,.....Father, when my time on earth comes to an end, I pray I will be able to bear death as well as I bare life, secure in Your love and looking to the salvation that You have promised is mine. Amen. We shall see each other again some day. Mom
