“ So sorry to learn of Carl's passing. He was one of the finest people that God put on this earth! He spent hours trying to help anyone who would let him and was never too busy to take time to pray for/or with someone. I met Carl when I called to see what help he had to offer to a loved one with his Recovery program and it was like we had been friends forever. If he needed to be in the ICU or just visit with a person in the hospital, he would be there. If he needed to relieve someone so they could get some rest, he would be there. I had facilitated groups in the past and it was a joy to see how God used Carl to work with people. He loved God, and it showed and he loved people. Those who knew him has to have a richer life because Carl helped to make it so. Rest in Peace my friend. ~BJ

“ Dearest Darlene... So sad to hear of Carl passing. We were blessed to get to know him, enjoying visits to your home, especially Christmas Eve dinner with you and Carl in 2018. Our prayers are with you and your family. May you find peace in the past to treasure and carry forward in your heart. Makaye and Howard Vaughn

“ I got to know Carl some when he and Mary went to Haiti. When they returned back to Bluffton I would make a plan to visit them.
