

Catherine Ann Captain

September 13, 1945 - November 29, 2022

Catherine Ann Captain, age 77, died November 29, 2022 at Mercy South de Greeff Hospice House in St. Louis, Missouri after a series of strokes. She graduated from John Burroughs High School and Washington University. Cathy was a social worker early in her career and later worked as an insurance broker before a closed head injury from a car accident cut short her career. Cathy was devoted to family and maintained the family home built by her grandfather for many years. Cathy loved fresh flowers, spicy food, country music, Jeopardy, theater, telling jokes and most of all regular Sunday chats with family. She also enjoyed spending time with family in Maine, where she ate as much lobster as possible during her visits.

Cathy was preceded in death by her parents, Elizabeth and Ralph Captain, and sister Carolyn Johnson. The Ralph M. Captain Elementary School in Clayton is named for her father. Cathy is survived by her brother-in-law Charles Johnson (Jean) of Orrs Island, Maine, niece Linda Konner (Nick) of Modesto, California, nephew David Johnson (Amanda) of Hollis, New Hampshire, great nephews Christopher, Alexander and Ian, great niece Madeleine, and cousins Andrew Mercker (Kirsten) of Chicago, Illinois, and Emily Kennedy (John) of Charlotte, North Carolina. The family also wishes to acknowledge and thank two close friends, Billieann Mayes-Cain and Pattie Malina, who were with Cathy through her final illness and hospice.

A graveside service will take place at 10 A..M. on Wednesday, December 21, 2022, at Six Mile Cemetery in Bluffton, Indiana.

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the care of the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. Friends can send online condolences to the family at www.thomarich.com.
