“ I was very saddened to hear that Danny has left us.

I lived with Dan for about four years after moving to Indianapolis to attend ITT Tech with Dan and Pat Marshal. It is difficult to grasp that now both he and Pat are gone.

Dan was such a free spirit and always deeply into playing his guitar. I recall some memorable concerts we attended, after moving to Indy. Most were free as we were broke. We saw the Guess Who at the Garfield Park Amphitheater for free, but paid for tickets to a concert at IU Assembly Hall in Bloomington. That night we saw The Beach Boys, an early version of The Eagles and an even earlier version of Kansas.

Although I lost track of Dan over the years, I did often times run into him at some of the local haunts. So many memories of things we did and the trouble we got into back then. (I am so glad that the statute of limitations has expired.)

Dan, you will be missed!
