“ I just wanted to send a note to say how terribly sadden I am to hear of Dave's passing. He was such a wonderful person. I would always see him in the alley either playing with Drew or working in your yard. He always made a point to wave and smile. He will truly be missed by everyone.

Let my family know if you need ANYTHING.

“ I got to know Dave well. He was a great attorney. He was always there when I had a question and was a good friend. I never met his wife but he would always talk about her, good things of course. I will miss being able to call him just to chat or seeing him when I come back up there to visit. I will keep Suzanne and the kids in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Melody (Crow) Locker##imported-end##

“ Suzanne,

I was deeply saddened to hear of Dave's passing. You may remember that I worked briefly with Dave at Edris, Brown & Johnson from 1983-85 as a newly-minted and very inexperienced attorney. Although I saw Dave only a couple of times since I left that firm, he made a significant--and positive--impression on me during that period in my life that has stayed with me over the years. Please know that Abby and I are keeping you and your family in our prayers.

“ Suzanne and family,

So shocked and saddened by the news of Dave's passing. We have been praying daily for his health and strength, and also for strength for you. Dave made such an impact on our daughter, Lisa Sheets, while working for those many years at Edris, Brown, Johnson and Feedback. He always made her smile and made her enjoy coming into work with him. Recently Dave worked hard with Mike Lauzenheiser in a suit for my mother, Jane Gordon. Words cannot express how wonderful it felt for us to know that he was doing his best to see that justice was done. I want to thank you both also, for the wonderful hugs and support you and Dave gave Lisa and Chad two years ago upon the event of their stillborn son, Christian. Your understanding words and advice helped them through that horrible episode in their lives.

May God give you the strength to get by day by day, and feel peace in knowing that Dave is out of the pain and misery that cancer put him through and that he is still indeed near you every day, helping you live your lives without his presence on this earth. You will surely feel his strength coming through you every day, and know that he will always be there as a part of you. May God bless you and lift you out of the pit of mourning. Remember, Dave is with the Lord, and with you also. In Christ's love, Gary and Barb Dickson##imported-begin##Gary and Barb Dickson##imported-end##

“ *Susanne and family,
We remember Dave as a husband and dad who was proud of his family. Our acquaintance grew through the many chess tournaments, ball games, and tennis matches of our sons, and involvement in school activities. Our thoughts are with you as we pray for God's comfort and direction during these difficult times.##imported-begin##Tom, Gwen, Jacob, Sarah, & Lauren Schumacher##imported-end##*
