

Debra A. Crum

July 22, 1952 - March 8, 2017

Debra A. Crum, 64 of Bluffton passed away on Wednesday, March 8, 2017, at her residence.

Deb was born on July 22, 1952 in Anderson to John E. & Jane A. (Palmer) Addison. She graduated from Frankton High School in 1970. She was the store manager of the Pak-A- Sak Store on Wabash Street in Bluffton for over 23 years, and retired in 2015.

Deb loved to go shopping, traveling and most importantly spending time with her family and friends. She was warmly known as “Mamma Crum” to many of her children’s friends as they were growing up.

She is survived by three children: Jennifer R. Lehman of Berne, Randall S. (Jennifer) Crum of Anderson and Sarah (James Demarest) Crum of Bluffton.

She was a loving “Grams” to 8 grandchildren; Catilynn Crum, Spencer Lehman, Christian Clubs and Manasseh, Cassius, Azariah, Caedmon and Jairus Crum. She is also survived by her sister and best friend, Kathy Clendenen of Noblesville and her step-mother Wanda Addison of Anderson. She is preceded in death by her parents and a sister Brenda Wilson.

A service to celebrate Deb’s life will be held at 8:00 P.M. on Monday (March 13, 2017) at the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. Pastor Tom Bradley will officiate. Calling hours will be held from 6 to 8 P.M., prior to the service. Memorials may be made to the Bluffton – Wells County Animal Shelter.

Deb’s arrangements have been entrusted to the care of the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. Friends can send online condolences to the family at www.thomarich.com.
