“ So sorry for your loss. Our friendship started in our early married years on a volleyball team. We were so energetic then. Since, it has been chance encounters at Walmart or after church at DQ. I remember his jokes, his laughter, but especially his smile when he recognized you. I am so blessed he passed our way. I deeply regret illness keeps us away. I would have kissed him goodbye on the forehead, and told him "See you in the morning." Surely the Lord is coming soon.
