“ I only met Diane a few times when she visited D.C. but having her and Larry around was having some fun people full of wisdom in your life, even if just for a few hours. Their wonderful investment in their family shows through my friendship with Sarah and the wonderful encouragement and woman of God she is. May God as Emmanuel be extra real to you, Julie, Mark, and their families at this time. Praying for you all! Ginger Mickelson

“ Diane was a vibrant, loving teacher. I had many opportunities to work alongside her, and was always happy when that was the case. She had a wonderful touch with children and had many warm smiles and words for students and staff. I always felt privileged to find her subbing in our building. She spoke lovingly of her family and always shared about an event or occasion she was looking forward to with them. May God's peace wrap around you at this time - at the loss of this special woman.

I always enjoyed getting to work with her and was glad to see her when she would return to substitute. The love for her family was always evident. I pray that you are comforted in this time of loss and can rejoice that she is resting in her eternal home.
