“ Oh the memories I have of this dear friend! I have delivered Dee's mail for years and we had become great friends. She was the most giving and caring woman I know. She was always giving me little things to give to my grandkids or leaving me candy in the mailbox. I will never forget the time I went to the door with a package for her. The big door was open so instead of ringing the big purple door bell, I knocked on the screen door. In doing so, the window fell down on it and banged really really loud. I was scared to death thinking it shattered her window, but all I could see was Dee's hands and feet fly right out of her chair. She said she thought she had been shot and we laughed so hard we were both in tears. I always left her house laughing or smiling.

I remember also, I found out when her birthday was (Thanks Jordan Irwin) and I sent her flowers. She cried happy tears and talked about that for a long time. In a letter she wrote to me thanking me, she ended it with a quote she said was from her mother. Saying...." A stranger is just a friend I haven't met yet." And I so believe she lived by that because she was a friend to everyone. She was always talking to me about her grandkids and was so proud of them. My sincere and heartfelt condolences to the entire family of Dee!!
