“ Dear Jim and Family,
I was able to create a new friendship during your mom's time at River Terrace. My dad was in assisted living for several years. Consequently, I visited regularly for the free coffee and conversation with Dotty and her team. Dotty always had a riddle for me and a thought of the week - which she sometimes had to write to protect the other women. (She made me laugh.) I visited her room and enjoyed her art. I have One of her pictures of the Wabash River hanging in my office to be reminded of her friendship. Dotty Fryback was a special woman and a love and appreciation for her family and life. -I used her name often during the small talks I did on Sunday mornings. Your mom had a strong, inspiring faith. God Bless and Take Care.

“ Oh, how we'll miss Dotty Fryback! She was an iconic friend to our community because her values were matched by her diligence. She was loyal to the artists' group, where she was admired for being productive, humorous, and a resource for advice on technique. Her support for local causes was reliable. The strength of her example could serve to inspire others. And she could always be counted on to supply cookies! We offer our condolences to her family.

“ What a pleasure it was to meet Ditties at the Monday morning duplicate bridge club when Chuck and I moved back to Indiana. I loved her competitive spirit and learned a great deal from her. One of my favorite memories was taking a small snow scene painting by Dottie to my daughter in hot and humid Vietnam. She will be missed.

“ While my mom was at RT I was blessed to get to visit with Dotty often on walks about with my mom. She was so ornery and always had som little quip to throw your way trying to catch you up. Such a great outlook she had. Condolences to family members. I know she will be missed but leaves behind a large amount of memories to make you smile. Prayers for all.

“ Very sorry to learn of Dotty’s passing. She was such a wonderful lady and very talented. I’ll always remember the grand tour of her apt at River Terrace of all her paintings. She taught my best friend Emma Fuller how to paint those lovely birds. Years ago my scout troop would help her set up the table and chairs for senior time at the church. One thing about Dotty she was never afraid to tell you what was on her mind. I sure that Bill and Dotty are having a good time visiting and being together in Heaven. God Bless and the Fryback family will be in our prayers. Dan and Darlene Gerdom
