“ When Bud Abrams became pastor of First Baptist, it was September. We knew very little about Street Fair. Ed came to the church parking lot where we're selling parking spaces in his Barney car. He placed handcuffs on us and made us wear black and white prison shirts. He ordered us into the back seat and drove us up town to be in the parade !! We loved Ed so much and he was an awesome ambassador for First Baptist. I play his "Jazzy Hymns" cd regularly! A dear friend.

“ I knew Ed only through his daughter, June. Her love for him was so deep. I've heard many times about Ed's great sense of humor. I, and everyone who knows June, know that she definitely got her sense of humor from him. So sorry for your loss, June...and to all who knew and loved him.

“ To the family of Ed,

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I am proud to say he was a good friend to my husband Steve and myself. I enjoyed talking to him at Richards every day. He made me laugh and when he came in with his guys from Schwartz's it was a hoot. He was loved by many and we will have you in our prayers.

“ Steve, I’m sure your dad lived a productive, meaningful, and giving life. If your character came from him in any way, he must’ve been a fine man. You can now carry his memory on with you. Best wishes, sir.

“ *Steve and family - We were very saddened to hear that Ed had passed away. I loved listening to him play piano and enjoyed seeing him drive his Mayberry car around town. “ Ed was a wonderful example of Christ and a true friend. Every time I sang at the First Baptist Church, he was there to greet me! He had a beautiful God given talent! I will never forget the way he loved to joke and his smile! I was lucky enough to call him friend!

“ I am proud to have known Ed Higgins. I will cherish the times when he would push out his upper dentures and look like Mr Ed the horse. I can happily hear his saloon style piano playing. His way always made the listener smile and tap their foot. That is a gift to create that happiness. Thank you for your friendship Ed.

“ I worked with Ed

for 18 years. One of my very best friends. Ornerly is an understatement would do anything for you. He made coming to work an adventure. He pulled a few classic jokes on my wife which she will never forget. I was very fortunate to have visited with him and his minister yesterday afternoon and had communion with them. Rest in peace my friend you were a very special person. ❤️ you!
