“ Dear Family of Evelyn Shoaff,
 JOHN 10:10 Reads:
 "I CAME THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE LIFE AND MIGHT HAVE IT ABUNDANTLY."
 Evelyn certainly experienced a long abundant life. We rejoice that now she lives abundantly in her eternal heavenly home. She was blessed to have a family who cared for her abundantly!
 It was a joy to know Evelyn and see her in worship with Barry each week. She was always dressed beautifully, enjoying wearing her favorite jewelry. Sweet memories.
 It was apparent she also enjoyed eating at some of her favorite restaurants. You will miss Mom! Now she is no longer needing your care. Yet we all know the CARES of this world have now passed and she is rejoicing in the Lord's presence.
 The Lord will bless each one of you!
 In Christian Love,
 Pastor Jerry and Mary Nichols

“ My deepest condolences to the Shoaff siblings on the loss of their mother Evelyn. I never got to meet Evelyn in person, but if the lives her children have lived are any reflection, she was a wonderful person. Blessings and prayers to all of you.
