“ What a beautiful example of the love of Christ. My adopted Dad is where he belongs now. Heaven is rejoicing at his coming home and the angels are singing for his arrival. Even though there were times I seemed distant, my heart was always with him and Anna Belle, my 'Mom'. Love to all my 'brothers' whose hearts are filled with sorrow, yet happy for where he is. One day soon we will be together again!##imported-begin##Avis Hiller##imported-end##

“ We were saddened to read of the homegoing of our friend, Forrest, but what a happy day for him to finally be in the presence of his Savior, Jesus Christ. He was a great inspiration to us and we became very interested in the work of the Gideons because of him.

Our sympathy is extended to Annabelle and the family and we will be praying for you as you bid goodbye to Forrest.

So sorry we cannot be there with you.##imported-begin##Tom and Nancy Haiflich##imported-end##

“ Hello Randy,
I wanted to express my sympathy on the loss of your dad. He was a very kind man when we were all growing up. I have not seen you since graduation but I drove through the old neighborhood just the other day and reminisced on growing up in Bluffton in a wonderful time and era that will never be repeated. May God comfort you and your family during this sad time and may your memories sustain you in the days to come.##imported-begin##Kathy McFarren Bauman##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for Forrest's passing. I think back of the times I've seen Forrest in church. It seems he was always there. He was a great example of what I think the Lord would have wanted a great man to be like. He will be missed by all who knew him. Take comfort in knowing he is with the Lord and celebrating his homecoming.##imported-begin##Janet Rogers##imported-end##
