“ Just wanted to say that my thoughts and prayers are with all of the family during this time of loss. May you be able to feel the true peace that passes all understanding. There can be no better comfort than knowing when we go through the trials and hardships of this life...we never have to go it alone!

“ Kay,

Pam filled me on your loss. The days ahead will be hard. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I remember Harry's very colorful and entertaining personality. I know how empty your home will feel empty for a long time, but your heart will be full of memories.
