

Ina May Dormire

May 13, 1929 - March 15, 2012

Ina May Dormire, 82, of Uniondale, passed away on March 15, 2012, in Bluffton.

She was the daughter of Alfred and Marie Girod and graduated from Rockcreek High School. She earned her undergraduate degree from Ball State University in music education. Both she and her husband Lex earned master's degrees from Columbia Teacher's College in New York City as newlyweds. She began her teaching career as a K-12 music teacher in Crown Point, Indiana, and later taught kindergarten at Ossian Elementary School. Ms. Dormire founded the St. Mark's Methodist Church Preschool in Decatur, Indiana, and taught a generation of children while its director. During this period, she also directed the adult choir at St. Mark's. Music students grew through piano and voice lessons she provided from her home.

Always active in community affairs, Ms. Dormire served on the boards of the Creative Arts Council of Wells County, Inc., and the Wells County Foundation. She also was a docent at the Fort Wayne Museum of Art and a member of two book clubs, frequently performing dramatic readings of famous literary figures to local community groups. During her retirement, she attended the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Fort Wayne.

Ms. Dormire was first and foremost a teacher always willing to share her considerable talents, whether by introducing young lives to the world of academia and citizenship, promoting perfect pitch and diction in the choral groups she directed, or transporting an audience to Emily Dickenson's 19th century. She also was a loving wife to her husband Lex for 57 years, who preceded her in death on November 15, 2011, and a devoted mother to her two daughters who survive her, Abigail Dormire (Doug) Powers of Fort Wayne and Anne Keely (Charles Brumbaugh) Galluzzo of Cincinnati. She is also survived by sisters Hallie Pace and Joyce Grandlienard of Bluffton, and Jean (Jack) Kober of Liberty Center; a brother Don (Lorna) Girod of Indianapolis; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Christian Care Retirement Community and the Creative Arts Council of Wells County, Inc.

“ I have such wonderful memories of the Dormire family growing up. Ina May was so much fun and always organizing us girls. Be it the car washes or the musical productions, we knew we were in for a treat! She was a true musical mentor for me and many others. I can still remember her rendition of I do, I do at a mother's day program at church and her declaration to me one sunny afternoon alone at St Mark's that I had a nice clear voice and should use it! Up until then, I hadn't really thought about it! And of course, she never booted us out the door when we listened hour after hour with Anne and Abby to the Monkees!!! I can only imagine that her and Davey are together jamming today!! God's blessings to your family.

Love,

“ Anne and Abby: I am sorry to learn of your Mothers passing. I am not sure if you are aware, but she sang at our wedding in 1964 at St. Marks Church in Uniondale. Anne, I had you as a student at Rockcreek. Your Mother and Father were most respected Educators in the area. May the Good Lord comfort you in this time of sorrow.

“ My family would like to extend our condolences in the passing of "Mrs. Dormire." She was a wonderful human being and teacher. I will always remember her bright smile, as she took care of our three young children in the preschool. That was back in the 1980s, but seems like yesterday. The past week, she had been on my mind alot for some reason, and now I know why. Again, we are sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,
Timothy & Constance Hammond###imported-begin###Constance Hammond###imported-end##

“ I am saddened to learn of the death of Ina May Dormire. I have known Ina May and admired her family my entire life starting with her parents and her siblings. My sincerest condolences to Joyce and Jean, Hallie Marie and Don, and to Abby. I was not acquainted with Anne, but with a family of this kind she must be outstanding, too.

“ Mrs. Dormire was in charge of the Nursery School at St. Mark's when my son was in preschool. He is now 22 years old. She was always very nice to me and my family. I could tell that she enjoyed working with children very much which made it easier for me to leave my son in her care. She was very good at what she did (teaching). She will be sadly missed.

Sincerely,

“ I attended St. Mark's pre-school for 2 years as a child and loved Mrs. Dormire! I still remember her coming to our room and reading to us. When traveling to I-69 from Decatur we would go by her house, as a child this was a highlight of the trip for me. A few months ago when I went by I saw that it was for sale. It was always a beautiful property right out of a story book. I'll be keeping the family in my thoughts for they have lost a great woman!###imported-begin##Jennifer Andrews-Gerber###imported-end##
