“ My daughter thought of Jim and Andi as her grandparents, she loved both of them so very much. I will never forget how much they helped a single mom at the time and offered to watch Brianna while I worked. They were a blessing to the both of us and will never be forgotten. Brianna and I both send our deepest condolences.

“ Dear Nance and family,

Kathy and I are very saddened to hear of your loss. While we never met James, just hearing all the stories Nance shared with me over the years of her and her family show how kind and loving James was.

Losing a loved one is always difficult. Yet we see the product of a life well lived in the memories we have of our family, and their kindness and goodness carries on in the lives of those they touch.

“ Please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of your beloved Papa. We've had the privilege of being neighbors for over 20 years. Andrea and Jim were so loving to our children and always there to support us when parenting got tough. Beautiful people that will be dearly missed!

“ Our condolences to the Carlson (Yonker, Spott, and Rothecker) family. Papa was a fun and loving man. Mr. C cared about our son, Tristan, like he was one of his own grandchildren. Papa would always bring out his great sense of humor and laugh that would always make Tristan smile. We are going to miss you Papa. Rest in Peace.
