“ Dear:Blocker Family,

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and does have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions, please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

Sincerely Yours,

Brandy Molina###imported-begin###Brandy Molina###imported-end##

“ Dear Aunt Shirley, Chris, Cheryl and Curt,

My heart and prayers go out to you as you remember all the wonderful experiences you shared with your husband and dad. I have so many great memories of our times we spent together each summer as we "exchanged" cousins for a week....when Cheryl and I would get in trouble for playing with our soft-serve ice cream in the back seat of the car or the gigantic tupperware bowl (I remember it being at least 36" across) of home-made carmel corn at the drive-in theater in our PJ's with the seats folded down in the Rambler stationwagon. Remember when Prince decided he wanted to go back to the barn at a gallop and we both got bucked-off in the dirt? What adventures we have shared! Uncle Jim could always make us laugh and would tease us to the very end. I'm going to make some "goober slaw" in his honor. :)

I'm so glad we got to spend time together at our home in FL when mom and dad (Jim's brother, Bob)were visiting and Uncle Jim and Aunt Shirley came over for Thanksgiving or overnight visits. These are the memories that will keep Uncle Jim alive in our hearts.

I'm so sorry I can't be there to give each of you a big hug, but I'm holding all of you close in my heart.

Love,
