“ I remember Penny saying her mom crossed the picket line once and was called a “scab”. Until then, I never heard of such a thing. Now I’ll never forget it. She put her family first. She was her own person. Lovely. She certainly passed this on to her children.

My friendship with Janet started at S.W High School when our children was there. We worked together at Bargain Hut for many years. She was always jolly, hard worker, fun to be with, dedicated and a very good friend. Prayers to all the family, a beautiful lady is at Peace.
