“ My name is Jan Byrd, my wife Marsha and I used to show Mustangs with Fred and Mary Jo in Indianapolis many years ago. One year they allowed us to drive our Mustangs around the Indy 500 track. We had argued the previous two days who had the fastest car. It happened that we were the first cars in the pack. Speed limit was 45, but on the back stretch Fred and I looked at each other and the race was on. We shut it down at 90. We figured we would get thrown out but we didn't. Loved spending time with Fred and Mary Jo, I will pull those files of memory out and enjoy them from time to time. Love you guys.

“ Sorry to learn of Fred's passing. He fought a long hard battle. I've known Fred a long time and he was always a hard worker with a funny spirit. I know he really enjoyed the bluegill filets I brought to him. Going to miss Fred but he is home now and pain free. Our thoughts and prayers to the Painter family. God Bless. Dan and Darlene Gerdom
