“ I met Jerry at my place of employment 3 years ago he was the most sweetest loving man I have ever met .I remember when we had picnic jerry would occasionally come down to help me with set up and cutting up the vegetables. He was great company to have standing around talking with me amd other staff such as my mom lynn. Jerry meant alot to us he was definitely a special man .I will never forget all the talks we had the helping hand you gave and our last time seeing you when you gave us balloons and a hug I will forever cherish those memories .you are loved and will be dearly miss rest easy my friend
