

Joel T Smekens

September 5, 1943 - March 10, 2018

Joel T. Smekens, 74, a lifelong resident of Bluffton, passed away Saturday morning, March 10, 2018 at Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne.

Born Sept. 5, 1943 to the late Clemen and Martha Smekens, he married Barbara Brickley Aug. 5, 1989 at the First Baptist Church in Bluffton; she survives.

A 1961 graduate of Bluffton High School, he attended the Milo Bennett School of Linotype in English, Ind. After a brief stint at the Warsaw Times-Union, then-publisher Roger Swaim contacted him about an opening at The News-Banner. He began his career there May 23, 1963.

Joe began covering local high school sports in the fall of 1968; he continued to work as a Linotype operator by day and a sports writer by night until the News-Banner converted to offset printing and moved to a new building on North Johnson Street. At that time he began full time work in the news and sports departments. He was named the newspaper's sports editor in October 1977.

When he suffered his first heart attack in April 1986, publisher Jim Barbieri felt moving him to the post of managing editor would be less stressful. He served in that capacity until his retirement on his 65th birthday in 2008, completing a truly remarkable 45-year career. He had also been a News-Banner carrier for 10 years, first helping his older brothers on their route when he was 9 and eventually taking over the route himself.

After retirement, he worked part time at Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home.

Joe was the recipient of many writing awards during his career from the UPI and the Hoosier State Press Association; in 1985 he was recognized by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association for his outstanding coverage.

In July 1986, he represented the family of Bluffton native Everett Scott for his induction into the Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame. Joe had led the effort to nominate Scott. At that ceremony, Joe met and interviewed national Hall of Fame Cincinnati Reds catcher Johnny Bench; he also had an opportunity during his career to interview NFL great Johnny Unitas. Joe was inducted into the Bluffton High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000, was honored as the Grand Marshall of his beloved Bluffton Street Fair in 2008, and was presented with a Distinguished Hoosier Award by Gov. Mitch Daniels upon his retirement.

Joe served in the Indiana National Guard from 1964 to 1970. Joe attended St. Joseph

Catholic Church in Bluffton; Joe and Barb attended the First Baptist Church in Bluffton. He was also a former member of the Bluffton Lions Club.

Joe loved playing golf and was a regular with the Under the Tree Gang at Timber Ridge Golf Course in his retirement. His other hobbies were centered around his grandchildren's sports and musical performances. He kept up with watching and enjoying Wells County high school sports after his retirement as well as reading. He continued to write stories and articles.

In 2013, he published a book: "Window of Wells County — A Reporter's Favorite Stories," a collection of articles and columns from his career at The News-Banner. He was deeply appreciative and humbled by the response he received.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Angie (Scott) Harris of Poneto; a son, Brady (Kristina) Smekens of Warren; three step-daughters, Denise (Tom) Oswalt of Bluffton, Julie Fetters of Kapolei, Hawaii, and Diane (Patrick {Chip}) McArdle of Shawnee, Kan.; two brothers, John Smekens of Troy, Ohio and Mike Smekens of Bluffton; two sisters, Susie

(Gary) Studebaker of Tampa, Fla. and Jane (Greg) Waters of Bluffton; 13 grandchildren, Kayla (Bryant) Ponchot, Janette (Kurt) Funk, Leah (Brandon) Huggins, Joseph (Sarah) McArdle, Thomas (Paula) McArdle, Paul McArdle, Katie (Joey) Orozco, Chase (Mallory) Harris, Chandler Harris, Grant Harris, Sophia Smekens, Andrew Smekens, and Sydney Smekens; and seven great-grandchildren, Kyler Funk, Camden Funk, Brecken Ponchot, Mia Huggins, Molly McArdle, Emmy McArdle and William McArdle.

Services will be held Wed., March 14 at 10:30 a.m. at the First Baptist Church. Visitation hours are Monday from 5 to 8 p.m., Tuesday from noon to 8 p.m. at Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home, and Wednesday for one hour prior to the services at the church. Pastor Les Cantrell and Jeff Lemler will officiate.

Burial will be in Elm Grove Cemetery with Catholic Graveside Rites conducted by Msgr. Pius N. Ilechukwu. There will also be graveside military honors by the American Legion Post 111 Color Guard and the U.S. Army Honor Guard. Preferred memorials are to the Bluffton, Southern Wells and Norwell Athletic Departments.

Friends can send online condolences to the family at www.thomarich.com.

“ I have a funny story from January 2014 about Joe and my mom, Phyllis Hamilton. One afternoon he had stopped past CHristian Care to drop off a copy of his wonderful book. Mom teased him about being all dressed up just to visit her, and he admitted he was on his way to the Ft. Wayne crematorium. She teased him about looking like he was on a date and said "Well, I guess one of these days you're going to be MY last date, and I hope you'll dress like that to take me to Ft Wayne, too!" They laughed. Three days later Mom had a fatal clot in her lungs, and a week from that conversation Joe was indeed taking her on her "last date". After the funeral when we all had left the gravesite, Joe said he and the bulldozer man stood in a blizzard and toasted Mom with a final cigarette: "This one's for Phid"! What a great story to brighten up that sad time. I hope Mom and Joe have reconnected now in the Bluffton section behind those Pearly Gates! He was one of a kind, and a special guy - thanks for sharing him with us all these years.

“ Joe was a good friend and mentor to me. We shared great stories of his beloved Dodgers and my Reds. He took a chance on me as a sports reporter for the News Banner back in 1986. I wasn't very good, but he gently guided me in my efforts. What a gentleman!

“ Dearest Smekens families, Joe, as we knew him was a wonderful high school friend of me and my husband. Always smiling, being his friendly self and kind. He was especially comforting to us, two years ago, at the funeral home during our mom;s passing. He shared his book with us. Our special memory of Joe, was whenever he saw my husband, he would call him, Scale Gooley, to amuse us .Our hometown has lost a wonderful servant! “ He will truly be missed! What a great guy! I always appreciated the article Joe wrote about my brother Bob Betz when he passed away. Then when my husband Larry died less than a year ago, Joe was instrumental in getting the news out about the book he had written. He always put his arm around me and asked me how I was doing! He always thought of others first. What a servant's heart! Many prayers and thoughts to the family! RiP, Joe!

“ I met Joe when we were members of the National Guard. We went to basic training together at Fort Leonard Wood . Somehow Joe arranged for an old DC3 airplane to pick us up at the Fort Leonard Wood airport and, with 25 mile week end passes, 6 or 8 of us from Bluffton, flew into Baer Field and spent the week end in Bluffton. Joe and I became good friends. We talked sports and family and he and his brother, Mike and I played several rounds of golf together. I was proud to call Joe my friend.
Condolences to the family.

So sorry to hear our neighbor down the street has went to Heaven. What a great man he was.
He was an outstanding sports writer, not only for Wells county but the surrounding area.
When I married Sandy Mann and move to Bluffton 25 years ago, Joe remembered me from the Berne Bears 1961 basketball team that we got beat by Kokomo in the last game of the semi state.
Kokomo went on to win the state that year.
We often joked about the Tigers and the Bears basketball games.
Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family. What an awesome man Heaven Gained.

Joe was a wonderful guy! With the budding of girls' sports in the mid-seventies, he was interested and fair in his coverage of these competitions. Back in the day, I actually needed to talk on the phone with him or leave a message to inform the NB sports department about our Norwell girls' basketball games or tennis matches. His interviews with me were insightful and pleasant. He was a professional friend. Our community was fortunate to have him.
