“ I met John who was in the Masons with my father. He was a very nice man. Everyday when I get out of my car at the hospital, he would wave to me. Every morning and night until it got cold he was sitting on his porch. I already miss that wave. Rip John. My condolences to the family.

“ My family met Dick years ago while he was out on one of his many walks with Ruger, and he became a quick friend. He always had a kind word for our family, and I will never forget his contagious laugh. I will miss seeing him on his porch when I take my morning walks. My sympathies to his family and friends.
