“ Dear Mrs. Maynard and Family:

Although I have lived away from Bluffton most of my adult life I remember hearing constant praise of John from my mother, Martha Speheger during the years that she worked at the furniture store. It gave her pride to work for and with such a great group of people in her latter years.

Fortunately, I met John at a Bluffton baseball game about five years or so ago. He immediately struck me as a man that I wish, had been a lifelong friend.

Along with the Maynards, Bluffton has lost one of its sons.
