Joe, or brother Rollo as he was known as a brother with Alpha ETA RHO International Aviation Fraternity at Northrop Institute of Technology (no longer in existence).

Joe was a happy fellow as his pictures always show him with a smile. Some things in life are best to be remembered and his smile, laughter and light heartedness are those things. I and my brothers from AHP are better people for having known him.

I am so sorry that it took me so long to find out the loss of Brother Joe. While trying to set up fraternity reunion in 2024, I came upon this most sad new. I have, this day, passed it on to those brothers who knew him and who are still with us.

May those who knew him as family realize how blessed they were to know known him.

“ To Josef's Family --

I've know Josef professionally for the past dozen years and can confidently say that Josef was my friend. We met while we were both working for Goodrich, but remained in touch up until recently despite a divergence in our careers and respective employers. It was always a pleasure to be in Josef's company and he remained upbeat and cheerful every time we spoke, even well into his diagnosis of ALS. I miss the times when we worked together because we shared a mutual love of good food, especially sushi.

I'll remember Josef as among the nicest, friendliest and sincerest people I've ever met. His concern and love for others was apparent whether you knew him as a life-long companion, father, grandfather or friend.

I was so sorry when I learned the sad news of Josef's passing. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you in these difficult times. Memories are special and time heals the hurt. I consider myself lucky to have known Josef and (by proxy) his family throughout these past years. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Dear Cynthia, I remember with great gratitude my stay with your family in 1983. It began when Josef took me in a small plane from Indiana to Wisconsin. So I had a wonderful view of Chicago. Sorry I haven't found a photo of Josef but I also remember how he went with me to an oldtimer show. The photo I chose was taken a short time before with my sisters Gabriele and Susanne who would be glad to play something to Josef's honor if we could be with you now. I wish you God's blessings for your grief, nice greetings from Innsbruck/Austria, Sibylle Geister-Mähner
