“ I'm so VERY sorry for your loss. How fast the years pass ... I actually looked at Joe's phone number today and thought about calling him tomorrow, so seeing his name in the paper really threw me. What a stand-up guy.

We have such great memories of Joe (and Marge)! We always stopped in on Halloween and enjoyed a little beverage time & snack after our trick-or-treat run. They welcomed my kids with open & loving arms.

Joe never missed a veterans day program at Norwell - giving me, and the NMS staff and students a chance to thank and honor him for his service. I have more pictures - will include when I find them. The Quilt of Valor he received is a family heirloom - please pass it down to a worthy family member so they can continue to celebrate Joe and his service to our country.

God speed, Joe - and thanks for the memories! Give Marge a squeeze from us!

“ Condolences to family and friends of Joe. As first cousins on his Mom, Mary's family, we did not have opportunity to visit much with Joe, but such a neat guy he was! May he rest in peace. Surely he is busy being reunited with Marge, his parents, sisters, and all those who have gone before
