“ I have many fond memories of Joyce. She did not know a stranger always reached out to others. I worked for her at City Limits and you were not an employee there you were her friend and she truly cared for you as a person.. I would run into her at local stores and we would talk forever. Such a sweet beautiful lady . She will be missed

“ I will remember Joyce as a person who always had a hug, a smile and "love you" whether we crossed paths at the supermarket or an extended family function. Although we were not directly related she treated my family as if we were a part of hers. She will me missed.
