

Joyce D. Hastings

February 23, 1951 - December 8, 2011

Joyce D. Hastings, 60, of Huntington and formerly of Bluffton passed away unexpectedly Thursday, December 8, 2011 at her home in Huntington. Joyce was born February 23, 1951 in Bluffton, Indiana to Raymond and Pearl (Lee) Hakes. She graduated from Bluffton High School in 1968 and continued her education at I.P.F.W. and Indiana University ultimately becoming a Registered Nurse. Joyce worked for many years as a charge nurse at Meadowvale Health and Rehabilitation Center in Bluffton. She also worked as a registered nurse at Victory Noll Missionary in Huntington which is a retirement community for nuns. She moved to Huntington this year to further her career in the field of nursing by serving as the registered nurse at the Huntington County Jail. Joyce is a U.S. Army Veteran and a member of the Saint Peters First Community Church of Huntington. Survivors include two sons; Joshua D. Hastings of Madison, Wisconsin, David R. Hastings of Morgan City, Louisiana, two brothers; Thomas Hakes of Indianapolis, Indiana, Marion Hakes of Huntington, Indiana, two sisters; Esther Frye of Winslow, Arizona, Rose Colvin of Bluffton, two grandchildren; Donovan Hastings of Liberty Center, Indiana and Jocelyn Hastings of Madison, Wisconsin. Calling hours are 2:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Monday at Thoma/Rich, Chaney & Lemler Funeral Home. Graveside services are 10:00 a.m. Tuesday at Decatur Cemetery with Pastor Richard Strick officiating. Preferred memorials are to Saint Peters First Community Church. Online condolences may be made at www.thomarich.com.

“ Dear:Hastings Family,

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and does have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions, please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

Sincerely Yours,

“ To Joyce's family,
I met Joyce, about 10 years ago, when she worked at Meadowvale Nursing Facility. Saw her about a year ago, while shopping. Joyce was always concerned for her patients, and had such a nice smile for everyone. God Bless all of you.##imported-begin##BJ Gray##imported-end##

“ Dear Rose,

My deepest sympathy to you and Joyce's sons. I worked with her at Victory Noll. She as a nurse and I as Activity Coordinator. Always a smile on her face, a kind word and caring for all the needs of the Sisters. We ate lunch together from time to time. Always a hard worker. Correct me if I'm wrong. Were you married to Mike Colvin who worked at the Roanoke Group Home? I was his co-worker and attended your wedding. Small world isn't it? All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I was so sadden to learn of her passing. A great gal. May God comfort you at this difficult time, yet know Joyce is safe in the arms of Jesus.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of my friend, and fellow Army veteran Joyce. Joyce was a wonderful friend to many, and a very real blessing to those whom she cared for as a nurse. We will miss her-but are consoled to know that she is no longer in pain, and in the arms of our Lord and Saviour.###imported-begin###L. Haines###imported-end##
