“ To the family of Judy:
Thoughts and prayers go to you all. I knew Judy at West Rock Creek. I grew up east of the Buckeye church, then moved to Bluffton where Judy just happened to have taught my daughter Krystal, later.

“ My heart breaks at the much-too-soon loss of another beautiful cousin. I remember like yesterday the day she was born and my first sight of her . . . a few hours old and so tiny, so perfect! I pray God's love to each of you in your sorrow. May you find many blessings in remembrance of her life on Earth and peace in the knowledge of her rest now in Heaven. “ Judy was not only a loving Mother, Grandmother and Wife. She deeply cared about other children and their struggles at home and at school. Judy would go the extra mile for her kids, to give them a hug or just words of encouragment. Judy has touched many lives and will be missed by many more.##imported-begin##Jerry & Cindy Joefreda##imported-end##
