“ Keith, Bev, Mark- I feel so sad. I have been missing Julie, and as a matter of fact, I just was thinking about her the other day when I was taking my daughter Megan to school. I was planning on coming up this summer and I thought it would be really nice to see Julie! As youngsters, we had the best of times. She was ALWAYS a good girl! You can have peace in knowing that! I will always cherish the times we spent together. I will always hold onto the memories she and I have, and the memories of our family's times we spent together. Much love to all of you!

Chris- I know you don't know me, but I know your mother very well. The picture your grandparents posted on the site is a true dipiction of your mother. That is how I will always remember your mother! She was, and still is, and always will be very dear to me!

All of you! I am so very sorry for your loss! OUR loss!

“ Mr and Mrs Ellerbrock, I wanted to let you know how sorry I am to hear about Julie's passing...I graduated with her, and ran around a lot with her. I always found Julie to be a great friend. She came across as quiet and shy, but when she got to know you and open up, whatch out--she was a ball of laughter...I'm so sorry you have to endure such heartbreak...I pray you find peace in the happy memories and legacy of life she left behind with her son.

“ *Keith, Bev, Mark, Chris,
I am so sorry for your loss.
It's so hard to say the right words when someone is going through the loss of their loved one. But just know that you are in my prayers and my thoughts.*

This is when I think of the "Footprints" poem. God is picking you up and carrying you through this.

God Bless you all

“ Keith & Bev ... my heart aches for you. The most difficult gift that parents can give is the life of a child, nurtured since birth. Releasing Julia into the Arms of our Father is such a precious, but difficult gift. Do rest in the assurance that you will see Julia again in God's Own Time. May your grief hold moments of joy to sustain you now and in the days to come. My heartfelt blessings to you and yours. In Christian Love, Marjorie
