Lanette was always helpful, respectful, spoke her mind weather you wanted to hear it or not and loved her family very much.

She was always the first to offer to lend a hand to whoever needed it. Always looked forward to her Jewish coffee cake when there was a fundraiser

I am sorry Kyle and I messed up the toy aisle at Walgreens so frequently as kids that you would never let me live it down all these years later. You will be missed and my prayers and support go out to your family.*

“ I will always remember our lunches at the Snug with your mom, Wanda, my best friend, and seeing your kids grow up. I always loved talking with you at work and at your cousins "Spike and the Bull Dogs" picnic your family invited Paul and I to. Your sweetness will be greatly missed but you did pass it on to your daughter and son.

“ A loving, sweet, and beautiful little girl grew up and became a lovely and caring mother of two great kids. How wonderful the memories are of getting together with Max and Wanda and their 2 little ladies.

Life is not always fair. Life throws us a curve at the worst time. Our memories of Lanette will help to fill the emptiness in our hearts that her death has created. God Bless you Lanette. Hugs and kisses. We'll see you once again one day. Love ya.

May Jesus Christ bring peace to the family that was left behind. We are thinking of all of you.
