“ Lord, keep watch over this young lady’s family and friends as they go through this very hard time. Amen. Life doesn’t always make sense, leaving us questioning; WHY? We may never know the answer to that question. The Lord can and will use this for a way to help others who will one day go through this or have gone through what you are currently. Be blessed! Feel the Lord’s arms wrap around you! May you cling to God and each other during this rollercoaster of emotions—time!

“ Lilly was my light in the dark days. She always lit up a room wherever she went. She was a very smart, strong and courageous mother. It hurts so much to have lost a good soul with us here today...but God has called both her Keaton home. It's only the start to new beginnings as we move forward. We will always cherish the memories and love that this amazing person has left with us. She will always be giving heaven some hell in her own stubborn ways. She will always be looking down on each and every one of us to guide us and to remind us of her everyday...I love you so much beautiful girl; my condolences.
