“ Very good memories of Ralph and Mabel. They were so sweet to me and my brothers when we were just youngsters. Many years later Eshter, my wife, and I had the privilege of having dinner at their house.

Our thoughts and prayers with family and friends. Liberty Center was once our home.##imported-begin##Richard Hannah##imported-end##

“ Saddened to hear of Mabel's homegoing but happy for her. I grew up in the Liberty Cener Baptist Church and she in the only person in the world that called me Kenneth(my given name}. I still can hear that vioce the way she said it. My time in Liberty Center was always home and I am sure when I get to heaven I am going to hear, "Kenneth".##imported-begin##kenny hannah##imported-end##

“ We send our sympathy to Mabel's family. The years we spent together in Liberty Center and then selling our home to her and Ralph when we moved to Chicago was special.

Our love to all the family.
