“ I remember the first time Maddie met my husband she told him that he reminded her of an iPad kid, which of course he didn't know what that was so she giggled and had to explain. He still remembers that to this day and thinks it's funny! Maddie was a very special girl, and above all she was my best friend's BEST friend and the very special bond that they had will never be forgotten 💕 love and prayers to the family!

“ Words can't even express the sadness I have for Kayla and Richard. Maddie was their world. She was their everything. She was their Angel gifted from God. Maddie I watched you grow up to be a beautiful, smart young lady. I still can't believe you're no longer here. You have gained your Angel wings way to soon.
