“ Irene, Many years ago, I helped my father Everett farm your parents' farm. One evening your father asked me if I wanted a moose steak. I didn't know quite what to say, but since I was hungry, I said "Sure!"

Your mother cooked the meat (I don't really know to this day if it was really moose), and added a potato or two. Though the years have passed, I will always remember that evening. Your mother seemed like a real neat lady.

“ Roger and Irene - Your mom was an important influence in my life. Since Katherine and I did not have relatives in Indiana, your family, and the Pence and Merkey familys became our Aunts, Uncles and cousins. I always remember Thanksgiving at your home. God Bless you both. You are in my prayers. Louise##imported-begin##Louise Misegades##imported-end##

“ Roger and Irene,

Your mother was such part of the good memories I have of childhood. I especially remember the Thanksgiving dinners at your home. My sister, Louise, and I have you folks in our fond thoughts.

Best Regards,
