“ I have known Margaret nearly all my life.. it started with yearly perms for school, I think. and going to school with Dennis, Diane, David , and Debby. She had a non exhaustible energy I've envied, and lots of class. My thoughts and prayers with the family.

“ Although we were away when you celebrated Margaret's life, I want to add my condolences to her family. I met Margaret when we held monthly activities for widowed people. She and the others deeply impressed me with their courage and cheerful determination in their time of mourning. She seemed to make the surroundings "glow" a bit and was always welcome and contributed some uplifting words. I admired her creative talents with hairstyle and with flowers. It was a privilege to know her. Peace be with you.

“ Margaret may have been almost 93 years of age, but she never got old. Those of you who knew Margaret know exactly what I mean. Throughout my life, I will attempt to live out this lesson that Margaret taught me - that your age is just a number, and though that number may get bigger, you don't have to get any older.

Dear family: We wanted you to know how much we enjoyed getting to know Margaret. She was a very classy lady and a lot of fun. We had many interesting conversations and she was sharp as a tack at 92 yrs. old. We will miss her greatly but know she is happy sitting at Jesus feet and she can see perfectly. You are in our prayers. Her Friday lunch buddies at River Terrace

“ *I met Margaret during River Terrace's progressive dinner this past summer. I admired how she was so full of energy for her age. She had been married to a man who was related distantly to my dad Eldon Redding. I wish to send my condolences to you her family via the internet as i am in Florida. She touched many lives while she was at River Terrace as everyone seem to know her. God Bless You

I have known Margaret all my life. She has been an inspiration and a friend to my family and my children. She always had fun showing me a new sewing project she had done and I took all my 6 boys to her for hair cuts many times. She was greatly loved and will be missed. I loved it when she said, "How are ya, Kid!" everytime I would see her!

I was sad to hear of Margaret's passing, but knew a few weeks ago when I talked to her that she was very low. We had many talks about life and about Jesus being the way to Eternal Life. She was a "giver" of all she had. Tom and I entertained her and Dale in our home in Chicago and, as always, she brought food with her. Our sympathy goes to all the family.
