“Missy was my best friend growing up. We were practically inseparable whenever we were together. I remember we'd always be the last kids at after school program waiting for our Dads to pick us up and never wanting to leave because we still wanted to play together. Even though we were only one neighborhood away from each other, we always found time to ride our bikes around the neighborhood or hang out at the park or at each other's houses. Missy, you were such an important part of my childhood. I can't imagine growing up without you. You were such a wonderful and kind friend to me. I'll always love you and miss you. Now whenever I look back through our old photos together or whenever I read all the birthday cards you gave me from elementary school to high school, I'll always think of all the fond memories we shared together. You were like the sister I never had. Thanks for being my best friend. Rest in peace, Missy. Until we meet again.”

“ Jeff and I spent some holidays with Bill, Sheri, and Marissa. Marissa always seemed happy, and I felt she was glad to see us. She was quiet, a little shy and polite. She said she wanted to talk to Jeff when she came to visit again about the time he spent in the Army. Marissa received a degree from college, and she was very intelligent and had a lot of knowledge about computers. She loved cats, and they brought her much joy. Marissa was fortunate to have Bill and Sheri for her parents. They love her so very much, and she is very special and brought much joy to their lives. They will remember all the good times they had. Marissa is at peace. Her loved ones will be with her again for eternity.

“ As her loving aunt, I mourn the loss of our sweet Marissa, a young life gone way too soon. While she was with us, she brightened our lives with her sweetness and kindness. May God in his mercy guide her gently safely over. We miss you, Marissa!

“ Marissa was my beloved wife and very best friend. And I will honor her memory forever. She was kind and compassionate and I loved her very much. And I will spend the rest of my life loving her. I met Marissa in December of 2017. Only a few short years later we would be married. And even though our time together was short it was truly an honor to have her as my spouse. I love you Marissa and I'll never forget all the wonderful times we had together. Rest in peace with the lord Jesus honey

“ My deepest condolences to the Bunce and Patterson Families. As next door neighbor to the Bunces for almost thirty years. I have known Missy since she was just a little girl. Missy was a happy, whimsical and somewhat shy young girl. I remember her little smile and laugh when we talked. I very much enjoyed watching her grow up. When she moved away, I missed seeing her smiling face and her "bopping" by my house on her way to and from school. I am sorry Missy is gone and my heart breaks for Bill and Sheri. She left way too young, but I believe God has called her home and has plans for her in the heavens. God bless Missy and those she left behind. I will always remember Missy with love. May she rest in peace in the arms of God's angels. Godspeed Missy.
