“ Mark will be greatly missed by the teachers and coaches at Marshfield High School. He put a tremendous amount of pride into his work, and was willing to help us with small projects beyond his job duties. He was a man of few words, but when he spoke I would want to listen for hours. My life was blessed to have had the opportunity to work beside Mark. Coach Shelly Jones

“ To Mark's family,
I was so sad and shocked when I heard of Mark's death. Mark and I was in the same grade at Lancaster Elementary School. We were in the 1st grade together. Mark was one of my best friends, along with Mark Gerber (deceased now) and Richard Meeks. My parents left Bluffton for Arkansas in January 1967. So that was the last time I ever seen or talked to Mark. I have thought of him thru all these years, and I tried to find him, but never could, because I did not know who his family was. Mark may have not ever remembered me, but I never forgot him. My prayers are with his family. God bless each of you. RIP my dear friend.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. Mark took such good care of my classroom. I was honored to work with him. I retired this year, and on my last day of work, he spent about thirty minutes in my room discussing the changes in education and in parenting. He was such an intelligent man. I want you to know that he spoke so highly of his family. He will certainly be missed at Marshfield High School.

“ Mark began as my janitor, but quickly became a good friend. Over the last six years, I spent many hours talking to him about his hometown, his family, and his high school, but mostly about life. I always valued his opinion and enjoyed his insights. There is nothing more I can say than he was a good, decent, kind human being. I will miss him dearly.

“ I met Mark back in 2008, here at work for The Marshfield School District. We started the same day. Mark was quiet but remarkably steadfast in his work ethic. He arrived early every single day and prob had 200 sick days built up. I ended up being promoted up and became Marks supervisor. He never missed a beat with his wise cracks towards me and always made me laugh. I will always remember how the school became his family, his friends, his life.

“ Larry Cook and myself have known Mark for at least 26 yrs. He was a great friend, anytime we needed anything he was there. Hadn't seen or heard much from him since he moved to Missouri. But he showed up at our front door about a year ago. Then he got on Facebook, so it was a lot easier to stay in touch in with him.. He was a good friend and a good guy. He will be missed. R.I.P Mark
