Come on in
I'll flash you a smile
Then we'll sit and talk awhile

I'll tell you a joke
Have a drink or two
A smoke with our laughs
Even if it's not 'good for you'

We'll talk about things
All the 'way back thens'
All the things we do now

And watch the big grins

We'll eat good food
That's what we do
We grow it then cook it
We're a hell of a crew

I'll do the hogs
You run the plow
It's what we were taught
It's all we know how

Today though, I'm done
But not gone for long
You can find me in chair
Out fishing my pond

When the wind blows so soft
You hear the jump of a fish
It's only me sending you a big kiss

Or we can walk through the woods
Find a mushroom or two
This time with me
I'll be walking with you

Fishing, mushrooming, and peach cream pie
Lots of cheesy tators, please
First bite, you'll see why

You see family, I'm not far away
You'll see me all over throughout your day
Where ever you go, each time you see me
I will now live in your memory

“ I had a very nice visit with Mark a couple of weeks ago. I stopped by his house and we sat in the drive, windows down in our pickups, talked about all kinds of stuff, old times, old friends, and just caught up. I feel blessed to have shared this bit of time while he was still with us. Will keep Mark and the entire Krinn Family in thoughts and prayers.

“ Your family has our deepest sympathy by Mark's passing away, I will not have the right words to say at this time to comfort you thru your grieving. But, in time hold to the good things, memories that made you kids who you are and what you have become. God took Mark for a purpose, to till the soil for harvest that is yet to come!!!

 On a lighter note, I remember building all those tunnels in the hay loft and shooting BB rifles at each other on Saturday afternoon's. Mike, Mark, Matt, Kent Wolf and me... That was back around 1972 and "A Christmas Story" didn't release until 1983, if Sally knew what we were doing we would have got the leather strap!*
