I imagine there is no pain more far-reaching and deeper than losing a child. My heart and prayers go out to you at this most difficult time.

Marsha was certainly one in a million and a better friend than anyone could ever imagine.

Our prayers go out to you and your family during these times of sorrow.

Love in Christ,

“ Marsha has been such a dear part of my online life that I seriously cannot imagine it without her.

Even though we'd not met in person, we were so very connected. We shared faith, love of gadgets & social media. We both had interest in extreme weather and followed along with our favorite storm chaser: Mike Phelps while often chatting away in his chat room.

Marsha was always there when something unusual happened in the lives of my family or even my garden. I'll never forget posting the picture of some really wild worm looking growths in my garden and within ten minutes Marsha had identified them as "stinkhorns" and sent me links. We had lots of laughs over the stinkhorns in my yard.

Marsha loved cooking and pets as I did. She faithfully commented on most of my pictures.

Marsha was also an early adopter regarding new social media sites. We were connected on twitter, facebook and google +.

I save Christmas Cards and I have 5 that she has sent me and there may be more I find later.

What a dear dear lady. I can honestly say I love Marsha. I'm holding onto the blessed hope that we'll be reunited again for eternity and that she is whole sitting at our heavenly Father's throne. Wow

I miss her already. I'm praying for her family.

*Thank you Jesus for Marsha##imported-begin##martha
